

10A GRAMMAR quantifiers: all, every, both, etc.

a Circle the correct form.

- 1 A We don't do (any) / no experiments in our chemistry class.
B You don't? We do something practical in every / all class.
- 2 A Did you do all research / all of the research yourself?
B Yes, I did all / all of it myself.
- 3 A How often do you use the library?
B Hardly ever. I can find everything / all on the internet.
- 4 A When can I see you to discuss my science project?
B I'll be in my office all day / every day today. Come any / all time.
- 5 A How did your students do in the biology exam?
B Not too badly. They passed all. / They all passed.
- 6 A How did the trip to the science museum go?
B It was fine. Most / Most of the students enjoyed it.
- 7 A What subject do you like best – physics or chemistry?
B I don't like either of them / both of them. They're either / both boring!
- 8 A Neither my mother or / nor father went to college.
B Really? Both / Either my parents studied law, but either of them / neither of them work as lawyers.

b Complete the column on the right with quantifiers from the list.

all all all anyone both every every most most of neither no none of quantifiers

- | | |
|---|------------|
| 1 Not birds can fly. | all |
| 2 kiwis nor penguins can fly. | _____ |
| 3 country in South America, except Bolivia and Paraguay, has a coastline. | _____ |
| 4 cars these days are fitted with seatbelts in the front and the back. | _____ |
| 5 the students in my class, about 80%, live very near the school. | _____ |
| 6 There are wild tigers in Africa. However, some can still be found in parts of Asia. | _____ |
| 7 In Ireland, who is aged 18 or over can vote in an election. | _____ |
| 8 Canadians speak English as their first language (77%), but some speak French. | _____ |
| 9 Nocturnal animals are animals that sleep day and hunt for food at night. | _____ |
| 10 Alexander Graham Bell and Elisha Gray invented the telephone at the same time. | _____ |
| 11 Trains in France run day of the year, including New Year's Day. | _____ |
| 12 the people who survived the sinking of the Titanic are still alive today. The last survivor, Millvina Dean, died in 2009. | _____ |

ACTIVATION

Cover the quantifiers column in b. Work with a partner and take turns saying the sentences using the correct quantifier.