Writing preparation1 Read. Find and underline two sub-clauses. Circle the speech marks.

A new girl, who was really shy, started at our school yesterday. She was on her own in the playground, so we asked her to play with us. "Let's be friends!" I said to her. "What's your name?" She said, "My name's Vicky." Vicky was really good at skipping and we had a lot of fun. Then we played a game with our yoyos. After school we went to the park, which is next to our school, and we played on the slide and the swings.
