Our Sail Boats

I've wanted a sail boat for ages.
My brother, Mike, wanted one, too.
So last week, we built two great sail boats.
It was easy, and great fun to do.

We found some nice plans for a sail boat.
Dad said, "Those plans look very good."
We just couldn't wait to start building,
So Dad found some tools and some wood.

We measured the wood for our sail boats
Then Mike sawed the wood carefully.
We hammered the pieces together
And sometimes Dad helped Mike and me.

We painted our sail boats together.
I painted mine yellow and green.
Dad said, "Your new sail boats are ready.
They're the best sail boats I've ever seen."

Our sail boats soon dried in the sunshine
And then we were ready to play.
We went to the pond by the playground
And raced our new sail boats all day.

Our friends loved our colourful sail boats.
They wanted to race us for fun,
So they've all built cool wooden sail boats
And we play outside in the sun.

It's great fun to build your own sail boat.
I think it's the best thing to do.
So why don't you build a new sail boat?
Then you can have fun with us, too.

The Dirty Shoes by Susie Green

Characters:

Polly – a twelve-year-old girl Tom – Polly's brother Mr Davis – a history teacher Mrs Clark – the owner of a shoe shop

Scene One

Mr Davis's classroom. There is a high shelf and some low cupboards along one wall. There is a broken jar on one of the desks.

Mr Davis Oh no! My coin collection has gone!
(Enter Polly and Tom.)

Tom What's the matter, Mr Davis?

Mr Davis I left my collection of old coins in a jar on that shelf, but someone has stolen them.

Polly (Looks up at the shelf.)
That's a very high shelf.

Tom (Points at footprints on the floor.)
Look! The thief had dirty shoes.

Polly (Follows the footprints on the floor.)
Oh yes! The thief walked to the shelf, then to the desk, then back to the shelf.

Tom (Looks under the cupboards.)
Look! There's a coin under this cupboard.
I can't get it.

Polly I've got thin arms. I can get the coin.
(Polly gets the coin.)

Tom (looks at the footprints on the floor.)
The thief was wearing Sport Star shoes.
They're very new.

Polly Let's go to the shoe shop.

Scene Two

The shoe shop.

Mrs Clark I've sold three pairs of Sport Star shoes. Davy Lewis bought the first pair.

Tom Davy's a basketball player. He's very tall and thin.

Mrs Clark I sold Sport Star shoes to Rod Taylor and Carla Holt too.

Polly Rod is short and fat and he's very unfriendly.

Tom Carla's a footballer. She's tall and she's really strong.

Polly Let's talk to Davy, Rod and Carla.

Tom We don't need to talk to them. I know who stole the coins!
