

Reading

Exam Strategy

When doing a multiple-choice reading task, it is helpful to identify the type of question which is being asked about each text. Questions will ask about specific information (part of the text) or general ideas (the whole text). Identifying the question type will help you to find the information that you need.

- 1 Read the strategy above. Then read questions 1–5 below. Decide what kind of information the questions ask for. Write S for specific information or G for general ideas.

- What does the writer want to convince readers of? ____
- What happened in 2009 which 'changed everything'? ____
- Why did the writer write to the editor of a newspaper? ____
- How does the writer summarise her experience of house-hunting? ____
- Where would you expect to find this text? ____

- 2 Read the three texts and choose the best answer (A–D).

Back in time

As she stepped into the hall after nearly thirty years of absence, she realised at once that she shouldn't have come back. The smell of wood smoke, damp stone and ancient paper brought the past back so powerfully that it nearly knocked her backwards. In an instant she felt like a young girl again, alone and frightened in the house. She remembered feeling very, very cold – not from the damp and the near-freezing temperature, but because a terrible new life was beginning. And she could do nothing to stop it.

- What is true about the woman's feelings when she entered the house?
 - She realised that she had missed her old home.
 - She was happy to return to the house.
 - She understood that coming back was a mistake.
 - She was sad about the condition of the house.

Future home?

Every few years, trend-watchers tell us that the house of the future has arrived, and gadgets from science fiction films will soon be in every home in the country. So far they've been wrong – and after viewing the 'Home of the Future' exhibition, I suspect that they are still wrong. Why do I need a super-intelligent fridge or an internet-surfing mirror? I would much rather see my face clearly in an ordinary bathroom mirror than try to surf the internet while I'm combing my hair! If only they could design a device to stop me killing all my houseplants. If they did that, then I might be interested!

- What was the writer's reaction to the exhibition?
 - He found it very interesting.
 - It reminded him of a science fiction film.
 - He wanted to buy the gadgets online.
 - He didn't see the use of many of the inventions.

- 5 Read the strategy above. Then complete the second sentence so that it has a similar meaning to the first sentence. You must use between two and five words, including the word given. Do not change the word given.

Exam Strategy

When you have to compare and contrast photos, it is not enough to just describe them. You need to speculate about the photos, express your opinions about what the photos show and talk about the similarities and differences.

- 6 Read the strategy above. Then look at photo A and the answer below. Choose the best words to complete the answer.

It seems to me that the man is homeless because he's 'sleeping / relaxing outside on 'the ground / the floor. It looks as 'like / if it might be cold because he's under a 'blanket / cardboard box.

I think the man is 'aware / unaware that someone is taking a photo because his eyes are 'half-open / closed and he looks 'calm / nervous. I also think the man is 'asleep / awake, so he's probably too 'excited / tired to notice anything going on around him.

- 7 Compare and contrast the photos (A and B) which show homeless people in Britain. Include the following points:

- Where homeless people usually live.
- Why people may become homeless.
- How you think we can help homeless people.

- Do you think we should give money to homeless people?
