

1 Use the have something done form of the phrases below to complete these dialogues.

have / your eyes / check have / it / fix have / a pizza / deliver have / it / cut have / my photo / take have / my phone / steal

- 1 A Nice hair, Roxy.
B Thanks. I _____ at the new hairdresser's in town.
- 2 A Do you want to go out to a restaurant tonight?
B No, let's stay in and _____.
- 3 A Why were you late this morning?
B My car broke down. I had to take it to the garage to _____.
- 4 A What's wrong, Paul?
B I _____ last night. I only got it last week for my birthday!
- 5 A When I'm sitting at the back of the class, I can't see the board.
B I think you should _____.
- 6 A Why haven't you got your student ID card?
B I need to _____ for it.

2 Put the words in the correct order to make sentences.

- 1 write / Did / story / yourself / you / this / ?

- 2 looked / mirror / herself / in / She / the / at

- 3 postcard / Last / myself / I / the / sent / a / from / beach / year / !

- 4 will / They / not / they're / injure / careful / themselves / if

- 5 has / Charles / the / to / himself / how / taught / guitar / play

- 6 meal / have / this / We / ourselves / made

- 7 like / I / listening / don't / myself / to

- 8 play / costumes / You / the / make / yourselves / the / can / for 3 SPEAKING Work in groups. Imagine that you are very rich and you have a lot of servants. Take it in turns to make a sentence about the different things you have done for you. You can use the ideas below or your own ideas. Try to continue making sentences for as long as possible.

clean house deliver flowers iron clothes make bed paint nails prepare breakfast style hair tidy room wash car

I always have my nails painted every morning.

I never make my bed. I have it made for me.

I have my breakfast prepared for me while I stay in bed.