

Work in two teams.

Students in Team A Find the person in Team B with the matching reported speech version of your sentence.

Students in Team B Find the person in Team A with the matching direct speech version of your sentence.

Team A

I often watch crime programmes on TV.

I never watch crime programmes on TV.

I watched a crime programme on TV last night.

I'll probably watch a crime programme on TV tonight.

I can't watch crime programmes on TV because I get too scared.

Someone has stolen my friend's phone.

My friend has stolen my phone.

Someone is stealing my friend's phone.

My friend can't find her phone.

My friend sometimes steals phones.

Team B

He said that he often watched crime programmes on TV.

She said that she never watched crime programmes on TV.

He said that he had watched a crime programme on TV the night before.

She said that she would probably watch a crime programme on TV that night.

He said that he couldn't watch crime programmes on TV because he got too scared.

She said that someone had stolen her friend's phone.

He said that his friend had stolen his phone.

She said that someone was stealing her friend's phone.

He said that his friend couldn't find her phone.

She said that her friend sometimes stole phones.

